

Faith, Care, and Community

Our Mission

The UMC Foundation (UMCF) advances sustainable community living and compassionate care for seniors by raising critical funds for United Methodist Communities (UMC).

Our Purpose

The role of UMCF is to create and maintain strong partnerships and secure critical funding to support residents with limited financial means, and fund UMC's housing, innovative healthcare, and community-driven programs and projects that help older adults live their most abundant lives. Together with our community of individual donors, business partners, local churches and groups, and other friends of our mission, we are advancing UMC's excellence in senior care and sustainable senior living.

Peace of Mind for Residents and Loved Ones

Thanks to the generosity of UMCF donors, no resident has been asked to leave UMC due to their inability to pay the total cost of care. Residents in their 70s, 80s, 90s, and even 100s can continue to experience abundant life in the communities they call home. Life in a UMC community is a time to learn, connect, and create meaningful relationships. In John 10:10, Jesus promises that He came to provide life abundant. That is the heartbeat behind the mission of the UMC Foundation – helping residents experience abundant living as they age well and enjoy compassionate care and security.

Our Relationship with GNJUMC

United Methodist Communities and the United Methodist Communities Foundation are independent entities that share a missional purpose and connectional relationship with the Greater NJ Annual Conference. We proudly embrace our roots in the United Methodist faith, and our Wesleyan values guide our ministry as we continue to grow and serve seniors of all faiths and walks of life. We strive to be a resource for congregations interested in learning more about navigating senior living, memory care, caregiver support, and other areas pertinent to older adults.
